CORONAVIRUS EDITION

At this momentous time in the history of the world, it is difficult to produce an edition of Goulburn Golf Club's FORE newsletter. Our minds have been focussed on matters beyond contributions to a FORE which has little of the usual to report. While we are thinking of the plight of people world-wide, our time has been spent on serious issues facing our Club. Suffice to say, our President, Manager, Board, Course Superintendent, Professional (and staff) and many anonymous volunteers) have been (and continue to be) flat out.

It must be said that golf has been a saviour to members and many who just want to hit balls and/or have a hit on the course. Fields have been impressive. Let's hope GGC emerges bigger and better!

On a brighter note so many are still taking advantage of the spaces we have continued to offer for golfers. Fields are full!

Resignation of Debbie Collins as a Director.

The Board accepted the Resignation of our Director Debbie Collins at its meeting on 16 April 2020.

We very much regret that Debbie has, for personal reasons, needed to resign from the Board but have every respect for her decision.

Debbie has been a most valuable asset on the Board and her contribution has been greatly appreciated. We wish her well.

Casual vacancy. As a consequence of Debbie's resignation, there is a casual vacancy on the Board which needs to be filled. Is there are Member or Members who would like to be considered for that position. I hope so and I invite you to write to Morris at morrisandmargot@gmail.com or any Board member or the Club indicating your interest and your aims or objectives in becoming a Director on the Board.

The process is that the Board would then decide at its next meeting to fill that casual vacancy.

I am hoping that there are a number of you who may be interested in the position and will come forward.

Morris Owen.
